

ECONOMIC PROSPECTS 2009: GLOBAL CHANGES, LOCAL IMPACTS

Every day brings new headlines. Gasoline prices hit record highs, and then plummeted. Mortgage defaults are rising. The stock market is on a wild roller coaster ride. Credit is nearly frozen. Governments everywhere are scrambling to prop up their economies.

What's ahead for the Baltimore region in the coming year?

Join us at the Baltimore Metropolitan Council, as a panel of local experts discusses what they expect and how the region should prepare to meet an uncertain future.

- DATE: Thursday, December 4
- TIME: 8:00 – 10:30 a.m.
- PLACE: Baltimore Metropolitan Council
2700 Lighthouse Point East, Suite 310 (2700 block of Boston Street)
Baltimore, MD 21224
- COST: $10.00, which includes continental breakfast

Registration Information

Register online at www.baltometro.org or complete the following information and either fax (410-732-8248) or mail the completed form to Stephanie Walsh, Baltimore Metropolitan Council, 2700 Lighthouse Point East, Suite 310, Baltimore, Maryland 21224-4774.

First name _____ Last name _____

Organization _____

Address _____

City, State, Zip _____

Telephone _____ Fax _____

E-mail _____

Method of payment

Credit Card (circle one: Visa MasterCard) Check (payable to Baltimore Metropolitan Council)

Card Number _____ Expiration Date _____

Signature _____

Questions? Call Barbara Herron at 410-732-9564.