Description	Justification
The extension of New Vail Street approximately 1200 feet north from its current terminus at Keith Avenue. Concept development is now being completed; total design and construction cost is estimated at $25 million.	This project will provide for oversized/overweight commercial vehicle access directly from the Seagirt Marine Terminal to the Chesapeake Commerce Center, a 184 acre warehouse/distribution and light industrial park now under development. This project will reduce commercial vehicle traffic on Broening Highway, Dundalk Avenue, and Holabird Avenue
