AGENDA

1. WELCOME AND ROLL CALL (5 MIN)

2. APPROVAL OF MARCH MINUTES (5 MIN)

3. PRESENTATION: RIGHTSIZING LOUISVILLE FOR SAFE STREETS (25 MIN)

Ms. Claire Yates will present on the Rightsizing Louisville for Safe Streets project which was awarded $21.4 million in funding through the federal program Safe Streets for All Implementation (SS4A). This project will rightsize or reconfigure approximately 10 roadway corridors that pose the highest safety risk in Louisville-Jefferson County to be safer, calmer, and more inclusive. The project's safety improvements include road diets, bicycle lanes, mini roundabouts, sidewalks, infrastructure improvements for persons with disabilities, crosswalk enhancements, medians and pedestrian refuge islands, pedestrian hybrid beacons, reflective backplates on traffic signals, curb extensions, and improved lighting. Each project corridor includes several Proven Safety Countermeasures in addition to other improvements to infrastructure safety that will lead to safer speeds along the corridors.

4. PRESENTATION: T-SAFE: TAMPA - SYSTEMIC APPLICATIONS FOR EQUITY (25 MIN)

Ms. Kelly Fearon will present on the T-SAFE: Tampa - Systemic Applications for Equity project which was awarded $20 million in funding through SS4A. This project will rapidly deploy systemic safety countermeasures in a series of low-cost, high-impact projects spread across a broad geography. The project will add quick-to-implement improvements along Tampa's high-injury network such as pedestrian mid-block crosswalks, backplates with reflective borders, rectangular rapid-flashing beacons, high-visibility crosswalks, and signage and marking enhancements. The project will also construct new sidewalks and separated bicycle lanes, upgrade street lighting, and narrow and repurpose lanes with a focus on improvements near schools, parks, and transit routes. In addition, the project will develop a Pedestrian Safety and Equity Action Plan.

5. DISCUSSION: FUTURE TOPIC AREAS FOR BPAG (15 MIN)

Discussion about the focus and new topics of interest for BPAG in fiscal year 2023. A member survey will be distributed following the discussion.
