Overview

- The Census is a once-in-a-decade opportunity
- Each person uncounted = \(~$18,250\) in federal funds
- Counties have limited financial and human resources
- Our members exist in one contiguous media market
- A regional effort maximizes resources and results in a better count for all
Scope of Work

- Joint broadcast radio campaign designed to enhance marketing efforts that each jurisdiction would otherwise execute independently.

- The campaign does not supplant the marketing strategy of any jurisdiction.

- BMC coordinates radio ad development and ad purchases on behalf of the participating jurisdictions.

- Strategy places :30 and :15 second advertisements on English language and Spanish language radio serving the greater Baltimore region.
Audiences

• Targeting “hard-to-count” populations:
  – African American adults (18 to 64 years old)
  – Seniors of color (65+ years old)
  – Renters
  – Persons with limited access to internet
  – Parents/guardians of children under the age of five
  – Spanish speakers
