UPWP – Focus Area Projects

- Regional Workers' Travel Choices

- Purpose: Establish a monitoring data collection program to understand regional workers' travel choices and patterns. Design a survey and distribute to regional households collecting basic characteristics and detailed household labor force travel and location choices.
- Data to be collected: Basic household and member characteristics and details on commute travel; work location (home versus office), home location, day of the week flexibility; information about the commute. Participants will be asked to provide this data for current day and pre-pandemic times.
- Deliverables:
  - Survey instrument design
  - Data on commuter travel choices and location
  - A statistical cross-tab analysis on commuter travel choices and locations with person/household demographic characteristics
