

CURATED NATIONAL NEWS

APTA Seeks Five-Year Exemption from CDL “Under-the-Hood” Testing Requirement to Address Critical Transit Bus Operator Shortage

APTA.com

What the 2024 Election Could Mean for Transportation Policy

Governing

Under Trump, Prepare for New US Transportation Priorities

Bloomberg Citylab

Congestion Pricing is Back – But Why Did It Ever Go Anywhere in the First Place?

Streetsblog NYC

SEPTA Pauses “Bus Revolution” as Politicians’ Calls for Shapiro, State Legislature to Fund Transit Grow Louder

CBS News

Not Worth the Risk: Why US Cities Should Rethink Transit Fare Policing

JuristNews

Black Men – Including Transit Workers – are Targets for Aggression on Public Transportation, Notre Dame Study Shows

Keough School of Global Affairs

REGIONAL NEWS LINKS

Baltimore’s Red Line is not dead yet, but Trump win threatens mass transit

Some fear Republican Donald Trump’s second term will not bode well for Maryland’s efforts to expand transit, including Baltimore’s Red Line.

The Baltimore Banner / Nov 7

Five-year state budget projection foresees ‘enormous gap’ not seen in two decades

State lawmakers will return to Annapolis in January facing a widening structural budget gap that analysts said is on track to become one of the worst fiscal situations in two decades.

Maryland Matters / Nov 13

MTA study finds Baltimore transit riders now are lower-income and more diverse

The Maryland Transit Administration’s latest origin-destination study of its riders shows that more than 80% don’t have access to a car. Riders are also more likely to be younger, male and from a minority population than...

The Baltimore Banner / 10:30 AM